KAPULULANGU'S 500 X $500 CLUB

THE 500 X $500 CLUB

The Kapululangu Aboriginal Women's Association invites individual women and men, and organizations and corporations, to pledge $500 annually to support the Balgo women elders to care for the spiritual, psychological and emotional wellbeing of their families and community.

YOUR FUNDS WILL SUPPORT

- ◆ the Kapululangu Elders to:
- ◆ Revitalise Women's Law and Culture
- ◆ Pass on their Cultural Knowledge
- ◆ Heal their women, men and kids
- ◆ Grow up strong proud children
- ◆ Encourage resilient young women
- ◆ And much more ...

ABOUT KAPULULANGU

The Kapululangu Women's Law and Culture Centre was established by Balgo Women Elders in 1999 to:

- *Assist women to enjoy their Law and Culture
- *Teach their young women and children
- *Care for their families' spiritual wellbeing

Kapululangu is one of Australia's most remote women's centres and a provider of a vibrant Women's Law and Culture program in the Kimberley.

It is located in Balgo, in the Great Sandy Desert of Western Australia, 3091 km from Perth and 850km north-west of Alice Springs.

RECOGNISING YOUR SUPPORT

All donors will receive Kapululangu's quarterly newsletter and a Club membership certificate. In addition to this, Corporations and Organisations will be added to our list of sponsors and named in our newsletter, website and annual report. (Individuals may elect to be so listed.)

HOW TO JOIN THE CLUB

Make a pledge to donate $500 annually to Kapululangu. Pledges are not binding but we encourage participants to keep it up for as long as possible. Payments can be made annually, quarterly or monthly.

Kapululangu is an Incorporated Aboriginal Corporation, and a Public Benevolent Institution with Deductible Gift Recipient status. All donations over $2 are tax-deductible.
